

Curved Castell Roof Tile

Explore the Curved Castell Roof Tile by STIPL Roofz. A classic Mission barrel tile ideal for heritage restoration or timeless architecture. Durable, elegant, and historically inspired.

Curved Castell Roof Tile – Colonial Grandeur, Reinvented

Rediscover timeless colonial elegance with the Curved Castell Roof Tile. Crafted for durability and Mediterranean beauty, it's perfect for both historic restorations and modern classic designs.

The Curved Castell Roof Tile from STIPL Roofz embodies the authentic charm of traditional Spanish and European roofing. Often referred to as a Mission barrel tile, this two-piece clay tile has been a roofing staple across centuries—seen on historic landmarks, Spanish Colonial buildings, and Mediterranean villas.

Handcrafted with precision and fired using La Escandella's advanced kiln technology, this tile ensures superior resistance to harsh weather conditions, moisture, and time. Its flowing curvature not only delivers an iconic architectural aesthetic but also facilitates excellent water runoff and thermal performance.

Whether you're restoring a heritage property or creating a classically inspired home, the Curved Castell Roof Tile offers a perfect blend of tradition, performance, and visual appeal. Available in a variety of natural colors to suit your design vision.
