The Curved Lucentum Roof Tile offers warm Mediterranean elegance and Mission barrel heritage, ideal for restorations and new builds. Available at STIPL Roofz.

Curved Lucentum Roof Tile – Classic Elegance Restored

Blending timeless Mediterranean curves with a soft Lucentum finish, this tile is ideal for restoring heritage roofs or adding a sophisticated, warm touch to modern designs.

The Curved Lucentum Roof Tile captures the soul of traditional Mediterranean and Spanish Colonial architecture. Designed as a two-piece Mission barrel tile, it brings both cultural depth and natural beauty to your rooftops. Whether you're restoring a historic structure or building a new home with classic appeal, this tile offers the ideal balance of form and function. With its warm Lucentum finish, this roof tile radiates softness and authenticity. The subtle hues evoke the sunbaked tones of Southern Europe, adding elegance to villas, estates, resorts, and restoration projects. Each piece is crafted by La Escandella, a name synonymous with excellence and innovation in clay roofing.

At STIPL Roofz, we ensure these imported tiles meet modern durability standards. The Lucentum curved tile provides excellent thermal insulation, water drainage, and weather resistance—making it a smart and stylish investment in your building's future.
