The Curved Milenium Roof Tile is a masterpiece that brings historic elegance to modern construction. Reflecting centuries of architectural heritage, this two-piece Mission barrel-style tile is rooted in European and Spanish Colonial traditions. Its profile offers outstanding ventilation and effective water drainage—making it as functional as it is beautiful.

The Milenium finish evokes a sense of aged refinement, characterized by subtle tonal variations that create depth and distinction across the roofline. Whether you're restoring a weathered heritage roof or designing a villa with Mediterranean influence, this tile adds rich cultural character while meeting today's performance standards.

Imported exclusively from La Escandella and available through STIPL Roofz, the Milenium tile showcases exceptional durability, weather resistance, and color longevity. It's a go-to solution for architects and homeowners seeking a blend of classic aesthetics and cutting-edge kiln-fired performance.
