

Curved Paja Roof Tile

Curved Paja Roof Tile blends tradition with modern durability. Ideal for heritage roof restoration or new builds with Mediterranean character.

Curved Paja Tile – Warm Heritage in Every Curve

A timeless Mission barrel tile in a warm paja shade, ideal for heritage restorations or new builds inspired by Mediterranean and Colonial charm. Crafted for beauty, strength, and long-lasting appeal.

The Curved Paja Roof Tile brings together the enduring aesthetics of traditional architecture and the strength of modern manufacturing. Known globally as the Mission barrel tile, this two-piece design is a hallmark of Spanish Colonial and Mediterranean-style roofing.

Finished in a distinctive paja (straw beige) tone, this tile evokes warmth and authenticity while offering high durability and weather resistance. It's widely used in restoring historic roofs as well as in new constructions that aim to reflect old-world elegance with modern performance.

Its curved design ensures effective water drainage, better ventilation, and a signature visual appeal that adds value and sophistication to any building. Whether you're preserving architectural heritage or designing a rustic escape, the Curved Paja Roof Tile delivers on both aesthetics and utility.
