

Curved Red Roof Tile

Curved Red Roof Tile offers timeless elegance with Mission barrel design. Ideal for Mediterranean homes, restorations, and villas. Available in various clay formats and sizes.

Curved Red Tile – Classic Beauty Reimagined

The iconic curved red tile, known as the Mission barrel tile, brings timeless Mediterranean charm to modern homes and heritage restorations. Elegant, durable, and available in multiple formats.

The Curved Red Roof Tile, also known as the Mission barrel tile, is a hallmark of classic European and Spanish Colonial architecture. Traditionally composed of two pieces, this tile style has stood the test of time—adorned rooftops across Europe and the New World for centuries.

Today, its timeless appeal, natural terracotta tones, and multiple sizing options make it ideal for both new constructions and the restoration of historic buildings affected by time and weathering.

Crafted from premium red and white clay, STIPL Roofz offers this tile in various formats including T5, T45, T4, T40, and TT5, allowing architects and homeowners to choose the size and curvature that best fits their design needs.

From luxury villas and resorts to temple restorations and old-world residences, the Curved Red Roof Tile delivers character, charm, and craftsmanship with every piece.
