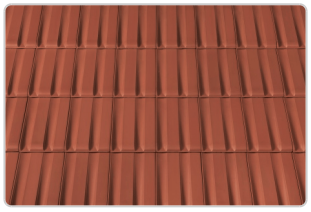
H-Selection Innova Red

Explore H-Selection Innova Red – a bold, innovative clay roof tile from La Escandella. Perfect fit, vibrant color, and unmatched durability for premium roofing projects.



Bold Innovation in Every Tile – Innova Red

Discover the H-Selection Innova Red tile—where Spanish craftsmanship meets bold design. With expressive color, precision laying, and advanced durability, it's perfect for roofs that demand both performance and style.

The H-Selection Innova Red Roof Tile by La Escandella is a revolutionary blend of innovation, functionality, and expressive design. Known for its bold visual impact and seamless compatibility, this tile is engineered to elevate both traditional and modern structures.

Whether laid individually or combined with the Vienna tile, the Innova Red brings roofs to life with rich color dynamics and architectural distinction. Manufactured with cutting-edge ceramic technology, it offers exceptional dimensional stability, reduced water absorption, and high mechanical strength. Its precise fit and compatibility make it suitable for both straight and broken bond installations.

With a color range extending from classic Red (TNRK) to Rustic Red, Slate, Galaxy, and more—including special colors on request—Innova is designed to match diverse aesthetics while ensuring long-lasting protection.

Ideal for residential, institutional, and heritage projects, the Innova Red tile is a bold statement of quality and performance.
