Add rustic charm and modern performance with H-Selection Innova Rustic Red tiles by La Escandella. Durable, elegant, and ideal for premium roofing projects in India.

Rustic Elegance with Modern Performance

Bring timeless charm to your roof with H-Selection Innova Rustic Red. A perfect blend of rustic aesthetics and high-end durability, designed to perform in all climates while enhancing your home's style.

The H-Selection Innova Rustic Red Roof Tile by La Escandella combines the warmth of traditional design with the precision of modern technology. With its rich, earthy hue and textured finish, this tile adds depth and character to any structure while offering advanced functionality.

Ideal for both heritage-inspired and contemporary projects, the tile can be laid individually or combined with Vienna tiles for dynamic visual effects. Engineered with low water absorption and exceptional mechanical resistance, it delivers reliable performance under all weather conditions.

Its dimensions and fit allow for both straight and broken bond installation, offering flexibility to match different roof styles. Whether you're roofing a villa, resort, or cultural project, Innova Rustic Red delivers enduring beauty and technical excellence.

Choose from a wide color range—including Brown, Slate, Galaxy, and custom colors—to tailor your roofing to your architectural vision. Manufactured in Spain and trusted worldwide, this tile is a top-tier choice for lasting elegance and strength.
