

H-Selection Planum Grey

Planum Grey is a large-format, lightweight clay tile with a sleek finish. Ideal for broken bond layouts, it offers durability and modern elegance for premium rooftops.

Modern Sophistication in a Sleek Grey Finish

Elevate your roof with the refined elegance of H-Selection Planum Grey. Its smooth, contemporary finish and robust durability make it ideal for modern architectural styles across any climate.

The H-Selection Planum Grey Roof Tile by La Escandella brings together timeless form and modern refinement. With a soft grey finish and ultra-flat profile, it's one of the most sought-after tiles for contemporary architecture.

This tile's large format and lightweight design—just 3.5 kg per piece—make it quick and easy to install while delivering exceptional strength and weather resistance. The broken bond (cross bond) laying pattern enhances water flow, adds texture to the roofline, and reinforces structural performance.

Crafted using H-Selection technology, Planum Grey ensures:

Dimensional precision and perfect flatness
Low water absorption for long-term durability
Consistent grey finish with UV and fade resistance
High mechanical strength with reduced installation time

Ideal for urban homes, villas, commercial buildings, and minimalist designs, Planum Grey complements a wide range of exterior color schemes and materials, from glass and steel to stone and wood.
