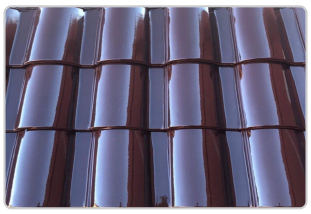
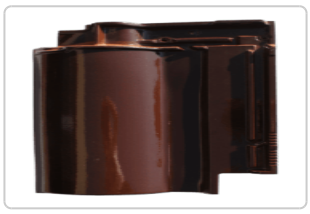
H-Selection Selectum Cognac

Selectum Cognac blends traditional aesthetics with FlexiLock technology. High-strength klinker tile in warm cognac tone, ideal for long-lasting, premium rooftops.





Selectum Cognac – Traditional Elegance with FlexiLock

Selectum Cognac offers timeless roof design with cutting-edge FlexiLock system for perfect alignment. A premium klinker-quality tile that blends durability with warmth and tradition.

The H-Selection Selectum Cognac Roof Tile from La Escandella brings together classic aesthetics and modern installation efficiency. Featuring a warm cognac tone and a traditional profile, this tile delivers a sophisticated, timeless look to rooftops of homes, villas, and heritage buildings.

What sets Selectum apart is its FlexiLock system, engineered for easy installation, precise alignment, and a secure fit that adapts to various roof slopes and shapes. Crafted using high-grade klinker ceramic, Selectum Cognac promises low water absorption, high breakage resistance, and color permanence even in the most challenging weather.

Its versatility in tile density—ranging from 11 to 14 tiles per m²—allows flexible roof designs without compromising coverage or strength. Whether your project demands elegance, reliability, or both, Selectum Cognac is a smart, stylish choice for roofs built to last.
