

H-Selection Selectum Red

Selectum Red delivers timeless clay aesthetics with klinker durability and FlexiLock installation, ideal for traditional roofs with modern performance needs.

Selectum Red – Timeless Clay Elegance with FlexiLock

Selectum Red roof tile captures the beauty of traditional clay roofing with modern-day durability, thanks to its klinker ceramic strength and easy-to-install FlexiLock system for a perfect fit every time.

H-Selection Selectum Red Roof Tile is the epitome of classic European roofing. Crafted using klinker ceramic technology, this tile offers exceptional durability, low porosity, and vibrant, long-lasting color—all in a traditional clay red finish.

The FlexiLock system simplifies installation and ensures tight alignment, reducing labor time while guaranteeing a secure fit. Whether you're working on a new construction or restoring a traditional home, Selectum Red offers a reliable and elegant solution.

With a usage rate of 11 to 14 tiles per square meter, this tile allows architectural flexibility while maintaining uniform aesthetics. Its strength, size, and rich red hue make it a popular choice for those seeking time-honored charm and future-proof performance.
