

H-Selection Visum3 Russet

Visum3 Russet combines the appearance of three tiles in one with a rich, earthy finish. UV-stable, lightweight, and perfect for broken bond rooftop installations.

Visum3 Russet – Triple Look, Rich Russet Finish

Visum3 Russet combines the look of three tiles in one with a warm, earthy finish. Installed in a broken bond, it offers high performance, design depth, and timeless beauty for premium rooftops.

The H-Selection Visum3 Russet Roof Tile by La Escandella is the epitome of exclusivity, innovation, and style. Its intelligent design creates the visual effect of three tiles in a single piece, reducing installation time while elevating roof aesthetics.

Finished in a rich, warm russet tone, this tile brings earthy charm and timeless appeal to rooftops, making it ideal for classic homes, villas, heritage restorations, and premium architectural projects.

Manufactured using H-Selection ceramic technology, Visum3 Russet provides:

Precise flatness and interlocking design

UV-resistant, fade-proof russet color glaze

Low water absorption for enhanced weather resistance

Lightweight strength at approx. 3.55 kg per tile

The tile is installed in a broken bond (cross bond) layout, ensuring visual continuity and superior roof strength. Whether you're building new or restoring an old-world façade, Visum3 Russet is built to last and impress.
