Explore Mixed Aitana Roof Tiles by STIPL Roofz – double-curved, easy-to-install tiles blending Mediterranean beauty with exceptional durability and efficiency.

Mixed Aitana Roof Tile – Timeless Mediterranean Style

Add character and durability to your roof with our Mixed Aitana Tile. The signature “S” curve delivers Mediterranean elegance with modern performance for easy, efficient installation.

The Mixed Aitana Roof Tile features the iconic double-curvature “S” shape, blending Mediterranean tradition with modern-day roofing needs. Its design enhances water drainage, roof ventilation, and structural integrity while offering a classic, sun-kissed appearance perfect for Indian and global architecture.

The warm Aitana color tone evokes earthy, natural shades inspired by traditional Spanish rooftops. It pairs beautifully with both stone and stucco finishes and is ideal for villas, resorts, farmhouses, and premium residences.

Crafted by La Escandella and brought to you by STIPL Roofz, this tile ensures simple installation, reduced material waste, and a uniform finish. Complete with matching eaves, ridges, and end accessories, the Mixed Aitana tile ensures your roof is not only stunning but also structurally reliable and built to last.
