

Mixed Brown Roof Tile

Discover earthy warmth with Mixed Brown Roof Tiles by STIPL Roofz. Designed in a double “S” curvature, these Spanish clay tiles bring Mediterranean charm and exceptional durability to Indian rooftops. Easy to install and built to last.

Mixed Brown – Earthy Mediterranean Elegance

A warm brown “S” curved tile that blends rustic charm with reliable roofing performance.

The Mixed Brown Roof Tile by STIPL Roofz is the epitome of natural elegance fused with traditional Mediterranean style. Crafted in a double curvature “S” profile, it effortlessly mimics the classic clay rooftops found across Spanish and Southern European architecture.

Its rich earth-toned brown finish adds depth, warmth, and an organic texture to your roofline—perfect for homeowners and architects seeking a rustic yet timeless aesthetic.

The tile's form allows for rapid water drainage, reducing water buildup and increasing the tile's lifespan, while the interlocking design ensures simple, secure installation. Whether you're building a luxury villa, restoring a heritage bungalow, or styling a modern farmhouse, this tile brings architectural integrity with stylish flair.

Manufactured by La Escandella and distributed by STIPL Roofz, this tile not only enhances visual appeal but also promises superior resistance to fading, frost, algae, and impact—making it a top-tier choice for Indian weather conditions.
