

Mixed Lucentum Roof Tile

Mixed Lucentum Roof Tile by STIPL Roofz blends classic Mediterranean “S” design with Lucentum-inspired tones for timeless, easy-to-install roofing with superior durability.

Mixed Lucentum Roof Tile – Elegant Curved Finish

Infuse your home with Mediterranean charm using Mixed Lucentum Roof Tiles. The iconic “S” curve design ensures a secure fit, efficient water flow, and timeless architectural appeal.

The Mixed Lucentum Roof Tile showcases the signature double curvature “S” profile, a classic of Mediterranean architecture. Designed to replicate the flowing, organic lines of traditional clay tiles, it provides exceptional aesthetic appeal and functional performance.

With a color inspired by the ancient Lucentum region of Spain, this tile offers soft beige and sun-washed tones that complement both contemporary and heritage-style buildings. The tile's profile allows for efficient water drainage, excellent overlap, and seamless installation with minimal waste.

Crafted by La Escandella and offered by STIPL Roofz, the Lucentum tile merges Old World charm with modern strength, making it an excellent choice for residential villas, bungalows, and luxury resorts across diverse climates.
