

Mixed Slate Roof Tile

Discover Mixed Slate Roof Tile from STIPL Roofz – classic Mediterranean styling, easy installation, and lasting performance in a neutral slate finish.

Mixed Slate Roof Tile – Mediterranean Elegance

Enhance your roof with our Mixed Slate Tile, combining Mediterranean style, double-curved strength, and simple installation for a timeless and durable finish.

The Mixed Slate Roof Tile is a double-curvature “S” tile inspired by traditional Mediterranean architecture. Its shape is engineered for optimal water drainage, structural integrity, and a visually dynamic roofline. The slate color offers a sophisticated, neutral tone that complements both contemporary and heritage buildings.

Crafted with precision by La Escandella and distributed by STIPL Roofz, this tile brings both functionality and aesthetic value to your project. It's designed for easy installation, with matching ridge and eave tiles that ensure perfect alignment and weather protection.

Whether you're renovating a classic villa or building a modern masterpiece, the Mixed Slate tile ensures a distinctive Mediterranean charm with enhanced durability and weather resistance.
