

Mixed Tossal Roof Tile

Discover Mixed Tossal Roof Tile by STIPL Roofz – a premium Mediterranean-style S-curved clay tile that blends beauty, strength, and effortless installation.

Mixed Tossal Roof Tile – Authentic Mediterranean Look

The Mixed Tossal Roof Tile offers traditional Mediterranean charm with modern durability. Its S-curved profile ensures elegant design, seamless fit, and effortless installation on any pitched roof.

The Mixed Tossal Roof Tile from STIPL Roofz is a testament to classic Mediterranean roofing, featuring a double-curved “S” profile that delivers both visual richness and structural reliability. Imported from La Escandella, Spain, this tile combines traditional styling with cutting-edge ceramic technology.

Designed for ease of installation and excellent roof ventilation, the Tossal tile ensures a tight fit with ridge and eave accessories, forming a weather-resistant and thermally efficient roofing system. Its signature curvature brings soft, flowing lines to rooftops, creating depth and movement while maintaining balance and symmetry.

Whether used for residential villas, commercial heritage projects, or contemporary homes, the Tossal finish imparts a unique terracotta tone that beautifully complements earthy landscapes and modern architecture alike.
