Star Red Ceramic Lattice – Stylish Ventilation Tile

FACE02 ceramic lattice adds star-shaped charm and cross ventilation to your spaces. Ideal for facades, fences, and partitions.

The Star Red Ceramic Window Lattice – FACE02 is a square terracotta ventilation tile featuring an elegant star motif. Measuring 20×20 cm with a 7 cm thickness and weighing 2 kg per piece, it's designed to provide a balance of airflow, privacy, and aesthetics. Perfect for façades, interior partitions, garden walls, and decorative fencing, this lattice promotes passive cooling through natural air circulation while diffusing sunlight gently. Crafted in traditional red ceramic, FACE02 brings architectural interest and timeless Mediterranean character to both modern and heritage-inspired spaces.
